Directors message:

Last weekend we drove to Lake Havasu to see a childhood friend who was just diagnosed with very serious cancer and little time left to live. I was able to spend some quality precious time with him and our friends. While at Lake Havasu I was able to attend the city's Thursday night downtown antique car show where everyone parks their cars along the street and enjoy dinner and drinks. I was amazed at some of the cars there, all models, all years and they were beautiful. Many of the cars belong to snow birds who come from all over the United States and leave their antique cars for their winter visits. Additionally, I was able to sneak in a short visit to the Saturday morning car show at the lodge there. Even though it was a sad visit, my friend has a 56 and 57 Chevy and we were able to talk about our childhood antics while in high school (such as locking the high school shop teacher in the tool cage). We were able to talk about our cruising days in our old cars like old time. You never know how long you have with your friends and I try to enjoy each and every moment.

Unfortunately, I was unable to attend our Randy Ema tour. I heard it was a really great one, enjoyed by all who attended. So sorry to miss it and am hoping we can reschedule a tour there later this year for all who were unable to attend.

It is Monday late morning and the weather is beautiful. The weekend both Saturday and Sunday not so nice. My friend and I were enjoying the Whittier car show until it started raining really hard. No matter, we still had a great time, lots of vendors, food trucks and great cars that I had never seen before. Sunday, I drove the 57 to the Enderle Center million-dollar breakfast. This is always a fun show. It is held the first and last Sunday of every month. This show is very informal, no cost and over by 10 AM. They have a great raffle, trophies for several classes. John Gilson and his crew do a great job. I encourage you to attend when you can, it is a nice show. See you in a couple of weeks---Gary
